

Name: _____

Date: _____

Eye on the Field, Volume 7, Issue 10, October 2006

“Alcoholics Anonymous Membership May Decrease Alcohol-Related Homicides”

1. Alcoholics Anonymous is proven to have a positive effect on alcohol-related violence, particularly in males who consume beer.

TRUE                  FALSE
2. What are some of the measures already instituted to help reduce alcohol's adverse effects on communities?
  - a. Increase drinking ages
  - b. Lowering of taxes on alcoholic beverages
  - c. Increase legal limits for driving
  - d. None of the above

3. As a result of the study, what do the researchers suggest as possible future steps that can be taken to help decrease alcohol-related homicides?
_____
_____
_____

“Decision-Making Impairment Appears Greater in Alcoholics with Certain Co-Existing Personality Disorders”

4. Results of this study indicate that decision-making impairments appear to be more severe in alcoholics who have a co-existing antisocial and borderline personality disorders.

TRUE                  FALSE

5. What impact do the results of this study have on the identification and treatment of high-risk patients?
_____
_____
_____

“Heavy Drinking Can Hasten the Progression of the Simian Immunodeficiency Virus (SIV) Disease”

6. Why did the researchers feel that this study of the effects of alcohol consumption on the progression of HIV was important?
  - a. HIV+ people are more likely to consume alcohol than the general public
  - b. Alcohol abuse is known to impair a person's immune system
  - c. Both a and b
  - d. None of the above
7. Results of this study show that past alcohol consumption has little impact on the speed of progression of AIDS in HIV+ individuals.

TRUE                  FALSE

8. According to the authors of the study, what were the two key findings of their research regarding the impact of alcohol on the progression of AIDS in HIV+ individuals?
_____
_____
_____

“Teenage Alcohol & Drug Use: At Best, Parents Know About It Only Half of the Time”

9. What two key factors did this study reveal about what parents know in terms of their child's substance-related problems?
_____
_____
_____
10. As a result of this study, the authors believe that researchers should not spend the time and resources questioning parents about their children's substance use, and should instead ask the teens themselves.

TRUE                  FALSE